I received an email from a resident about Officer Kyle Kupari and how he handled a recent incident.

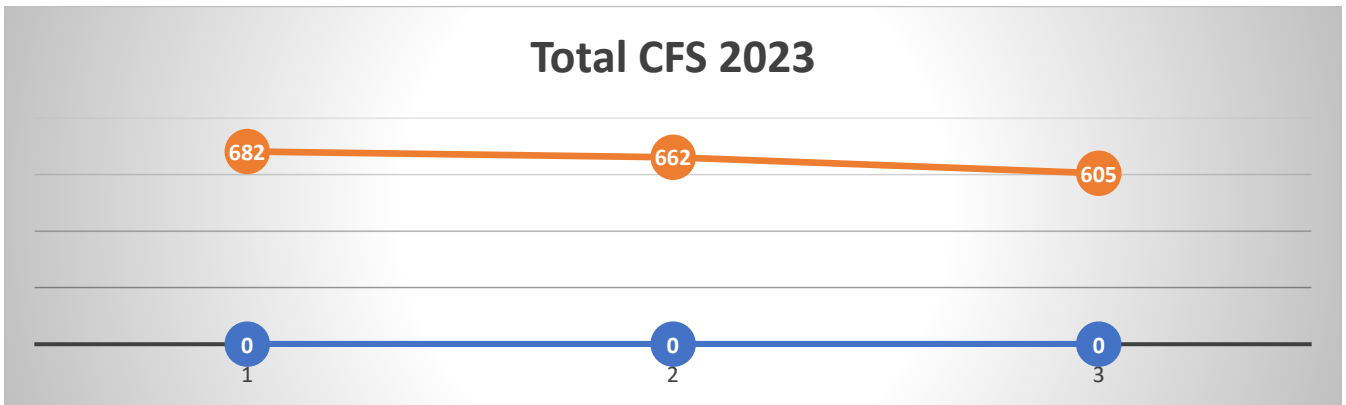

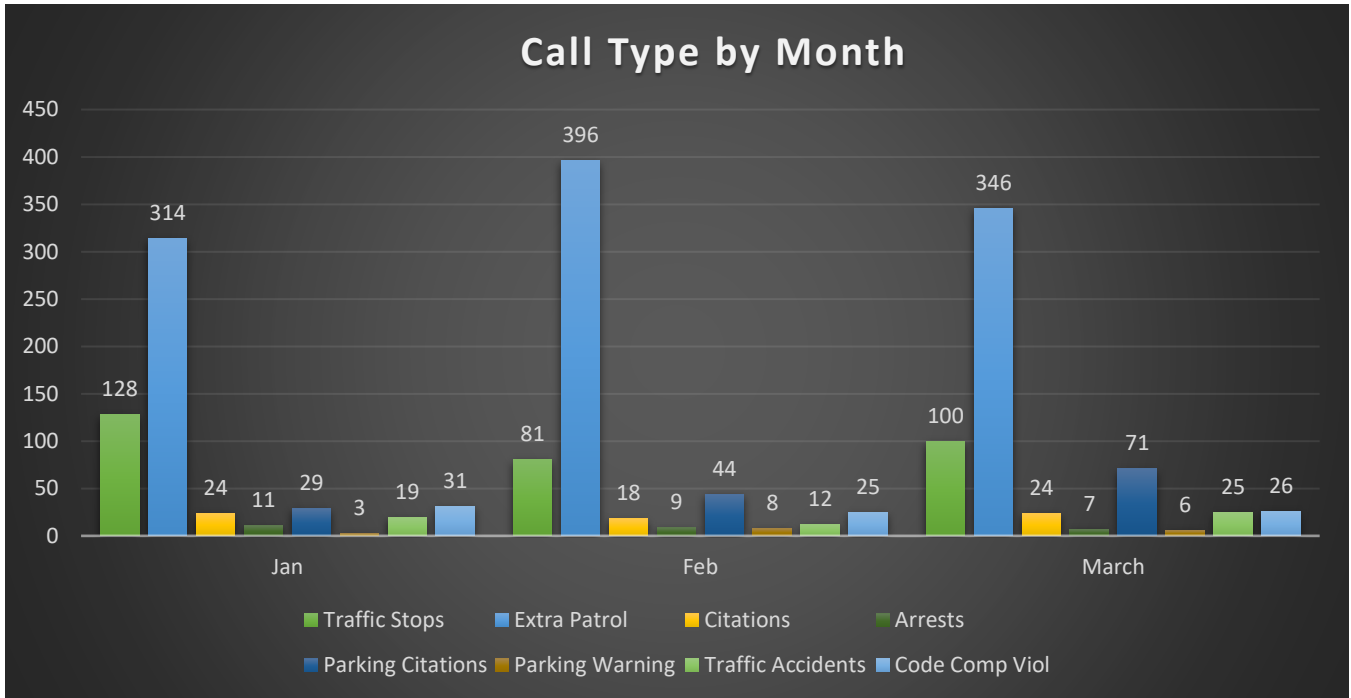

Chief Albert,

I just wanted to let you know about an incident two weeks ago involving a Dahlonega citizen and Officer Kyle Kupari.

We heard some commotion outside our house on a Sunday morning and noticed a lady walking up and down outside the Dahlonega Methodist Church. She was shouting out loudly about the congregants and making quite a scene outside the church. The lady was obviously quite distressed about the church members and was making her feelings known. She continued her 'protest' for quite some time until Officer Kupari showed up. I am sure he could have probably just put her in the patrol car and charged her with something, but that's not what he did. He de-escalated the situation by just talking to her and listening, which calmed her down to the point where she decided to end her protest. Officer Kupari then returned with food and a drink for her. He treated her with respect, listened to her, and calmed the situation.

Officer Kupari is a credit to our wonderful Dahlonega Police Department. In an age where our police officers are vilified so often, I feel it is important to recognize his professionalism, kindness, and compassion.
